

The Royal College of Pathologists

Pathology: the science behind the cure

Dermatopathology Study day

Friday, 13 March 2020

CPD Credits: 6

To be held at The Royal College of Pathologists, 6 Alie Street, London E1 8QT

The aim of this study day is to provide an update on topics within dermatopathology for the trainee, consultant pathologist and specialist alike with practical pointers and helpful hints to be used in day to day reporting and examination of specialist cases.

9.00 Registration and refreshments

9.30 Welcome

9.35 Dermatopathology – the role of the diploma - Dr Asok Biswas, Edinburgh

9.45 Inflammatory dermatoses – helpful hints and useful pointers - Dr Arti Bakshi, Liverpool

10.10 What the clinician wants to know – Dermatologist – Dr Tor Swale, London

10.35 Coffee

10.55 That tricky melanocytic lesion.... my approach - What immno when? Dr Arnaud de la Fouchardière, France

11.20 SCC v's Keratoacantoma - Dr Richard Carr, Warwickshire

11.45 Staging – TNM 8 - how are we doing? - Dr Paul Barrett, Durham

12.10 Lunch

13.10 Adnexal neoplasms – why bother? – TBC

13.35 Could it be MF? What now? - Dr Ruth Green, Salford

14.00 Pointless Dermatopathology – test yourself against the audience session - Dr Nicholas Tiffin, London

14.25 Coffee

14.45 Breakout session 1 (please choose between the following)

1. Inflammatory dermatoses – Dr Eleni Ieremia
2. Deep penetrating Naevi – Dr Alan Evans, Dundee

15.30 Breakout session 2 (please choose between the following)

1. Alopecia master class - TBC
2. Soft tissue neoplasms in Dermatopathology – Dr Asok Biswas, Edinburgh

16.15 Close