

PCDS Virtual International Dermoscopy Day 2021

Skin Cancer Diagnostics and Dermoscopy Day

Saturday 23rd January 2021 9.00 – 17.00 UK time

Programme

9.00am	Introduction and Housekeeping Dr Stephen Hayes Associate Specialist in Dermatology University Hospital, Southampton, England	13.00pm	Lunch Break
9.10am	The Dermatoscopic Jungle: Hunting Big Game with Confidence Professor Cliff Rosendahl Primary Care Clinical Unit University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia	13.30pm	Dermoscopy of Acral Pigmented and Other Significant Lesions Professor Luc Thomas Service de Dermatologie University of Lyon, France
10.15am	Revised Pattern Analysis in Dermoscopy Professor Harald Kittler, Department of Dermatology Medical University of Vienna, Austria	14.00pm	Hypopigmented Melanoma and Pigmented BCC: Can You Tell the Difference? Dr Stephen Hayes
11.15am	Morning Coffee	14.30pm	Prediction Without Pigment: Catching Amelanotic Melanoma and Other Dangerous Lesions Earlier Dr Nisa Akay Bengü
11.20am	Paediatric Dermoscopy Including Spitz Lesions in Childhood Dr Nisa Akay Bengü Associate Professor of Dermatology Ankara University Faculty of Medicine Ibni Sina Hospital, Ankara, Turkey	15.00pm	Afternoon Tea
11.50am	Keratinocyte Dysplasia (Actinic Keratosis, Bowen's Disease, SCC) Dr Jonathan Bowling Consultant Dermatologist Oxford, England	15.10pm	Pigmented Facial and Mucosal Lesions Professor Luc Thomas
12.30pm	Introduction to Inflammoscopy Dr Pawel Pietkiewicz Fellow of European Board of Dermatology- Venereology, Greater Poland Cancer Centre, Poznań, Poland	15.40pm	Applying The Chaos and Clues Algorithm to Questionable Skin Lesions Dr Pawel Pietkiewicz
		16.20pm	Any Questions? Pointers to on-line Skin Lesion Diagnostics Resources Faculty
		17.00pm	Meeting Close

Rate: £75.00 for the day

Book online at www.pcds.org.uk to reserve your place